PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Underutilized and unmotivated professional committed to bringing industry expertise and doing meaningful work again. Used to love collaborating with like-minded peers and having my efforts valued on projects. Desperate for coaching and feedback that was promised for development and career opportunities within the organization. Looking to love my work again, while reducing empty promises from managers. Tired of getting passed over for internal promotions due to lack of whatever the FK the manager would BS to me during 1 on 1s and Year-End Reviews. Looking forward to hopefully drinking less wine and White Claws during the week and jumping into the next challenge, and begin paying my student loans, or credit cards, or maybe putting some away in a 401k or stocks...That would be nice!

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

ABC Company with Shiy Pay, No Room for Growth City, NY
Manager of Finding a New Job

August 2017-Present Doomsday

- Responsible for consistently looking like I am busy around leadership and peers, but in fact, I am on LinkedIn and CareerBuilder trying to get the BEEP out of here!
- Created award-winning fake facial expressions that is used daily with managers and leadership. Facial expressions have increased by 34% over the last 3 months due to lack of follow-up on career development opportunities.
- Designed and developed thicker skin by 45%, while reducing expectations by 1000% from leadership due to lack of recognition, general appreciation, and failure to utilize full set of competencies.
- Constantly multi-tasking on useless conference calls that are really calls to review email threads, in which no one reads, because these *MotherF*ers* are longer than the Stars Wars original trilogy.
- Continually checking my Instagram, Facebook, and Twitter accounts during work hours for the latest Baby Yoda MeMemes because I am not getting challenged enough with current projects.
- Developed innovative process to effectively count down the hours and days until Friday in order to post #weekendvibes all over social media while increasing alcohol consumption by 20% quarter-over-quarter due to stress levels increasing by 60
- Embark on multiple daily website searches that include journey mapping from Amazon to debate on what Prime shipping offers exist, while checking ESPN for the betting lines, to venturing into “Where are they today” spam loaded slideshows of celebrities on Yahoo.
- Spearhead over 2 dozen scenarios of winning 100M PowerBall and how I would quit my job, what I would say to my boss and peers, and debate how many animals I would rescue on my newly purchased 14M dollar farm.
